Growing Old:

a) things that change; 1 When young, you use your feet to run all over the place. 2 You use your nose to smell all the wonderful odors, such as the cookies your Mom makes. 3 Your body is clean and you have a wonderful head of hair. Now; Your nose runs, your feet smell and you have hair all over your body, but none on the top of your head.

b) things that you may return to; 1. The teeth in your mouth. Start with none, and you may end up with none! 2. The undergarment you wear from your waist down! 3. The vehicle they push you around in! c) there are some things that stay much the same; 1. The good Lord in Heaven! 2. Your family! 3. your good friends!

They try to tell you that these are the Golden Years! All my gold seems to be going to my Doctors!
