Sunshine:

Dan Morabito broke his wrist while tripping in his yard.
Bill Wind continues to do well and is riding in the Ride for Roswell.

The May 25th Grand Island Lions Club meeting was held in honor of the 2015-2016 Peace Poster Contest 1st and 2nd place winners. The theme for the contest was "Share Peace". The objective of the contest is to allow these young people from ages 11-13 to think about and express their thoughts of peace through artistic interpretation. These expressions of peace should help these young people with greater tolerance for others and for better international understanding. Their creative artwork expresses what peace means to them. Pictured is T.J. Bender from the Grand Island Middle School with his 1st place Peace Poster along with his parents Jennifer and Jonathan Bender. T.J. did a brief "show and tell" of his winning Peace Poster and explained what peace means to him. Lion Paul Bassette, the Peace Poster Chair, is on the left. The 2nd place winner was Hailey Watches from the Grand Island Middle School with her Peace Poster at the right. Hailey was unable to attend the meeting to receive her honor.

I had received a letter from a sight-impaired Grand Island resident who needs assistance in repairs and upkeep of his home. After advising him of what our functions are, I directed him to contact the Olmsted Center in Buffalo and to also call 2-1-1 WNY (1.888.696.9211 or www.211wny.org) to learn about the programs there he can access. I will follow up with him to chart the course of his progress and report back to the membership.
